Sec. 3. Every person, firm, company, or corporation selling or offering for sale any eggs that have been shipped or imported into the State of California, from any point or place outside of the United States, shall display in a conspicuous place in his or their public salesroom a sign, which shall be not less than 1 foot in height and 6 feet in length, bearing the words "imported eggs sold here" in black-faced letters not less than 6 inches in height and 1 inch in width upon a white ground.

Sec. 4. Every person, firm, company, or corporation who receives eggs that have been produced in any foreign country and shipped or imported into this State shall immediately thereafter make a report to the State board of health, giving the number of eggs received, the date when received, and the place where such eggs were produced.

Sec. 5. Every person, firm, company, or corporation who shall fail to comply with any of the provisions of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by a fine of not more than $200, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. It shall be the duty of the State board of health to enforce the provisions of this act.

Marriages—Registration of—Compensation for Filing Reports. (Chap. 60, Act Mar. 12, 1915.)

SECTION 1. That chapter 25 of the revised code of the State of Delaware be and the same is hereby amended by repealing 814, section 79 thereof, and inserting in lieu thereof the following section, to be styled 814, section 79.

814. SEC. 79. It shall be the duty of any clergyman or minister of religion of any denomination, and of all clerks or keepers of the records of any religious society, and of any other person, by or before whom any marriage or marriages may be solemnized or contracted, to make full and complete return of the same, on blanks furnished by the State registrar, on or before the 10th day of the month following [sic] in which said marriage or marriages are solemnized or contracted, to the local registrar of the district in which said marriage or marriages are solemnized or contracted. A separate form shall be used for each marriage reported. All such certificates shall be filed according to their date.

For each marriage certificate properly and completely made out and registered with the local registrar or local registrar of the district in which the marriage took place, the maker thereof shall receive the sum of 10 cents. The local registrar shall certify to the State registrar the amount thus due each person on the first day of each year.

The State registrar shall draw by warrant from the treasurer of each county the amount due each person for said marriage certificates in each county, and shall immediately on receiving said moneys from said county treasurer pay said persons as provided in this section, provided that said amount shall tally with the marriage certificate records in the bureau of vital statistics.

Every clergyman, minister, clerk, or keeper of records, or other person, before whom marriages may be contracted in this section designated shall within 24 hours after said marriage, report said marriage to the State registrar on a form supplied by the State registrar.

The form shall contain the following information:

Name of groom.

Residence of groom.

Name of bride.

Residence of bride.

Date of marriage.

Place of marriage.

Name of person or clerk solemnizing marriage.

This report shall in no way supplant or relieve any responsibility for filing a certificate of the marriage as provided for in this section; any such person or clerk failing to make a report as herein provided shall be liable to the penalties provided in section 83 of this chapter.

Sec. 2. That chapter 25 of the revised code of the State of Delaware be, and the same is hereby, amended by repealing 819, section 84 thereof, and by inserting in lieu thereof the following section, to be styled 819, section 84:

819. Sec. 84. The local registrars are charged with the strict and thorough enforcement of the provisions of this article in their several districts under the supervision and direction of the State registrar. They shall make an immediate report to the State registrar of any violation of said article coming to their notice by observation or upon complaint of any person or otherwise. The State registrar is charged with the thorough and efficient execution of the provisions of said article in every part of the State, and with the supervisory power over local registrars, to the end that all of its requirements shall be uniformly complied with. He shall have authority to investigate cases of irregularity or violation of law, personally or by accredited representative.

All local registrars shall aid him, upon request, in such investigation.

For any violation of said article or parts thereof the State registrar may bring action against the violator before any justice of the peace.

When he shall deem it necessary, he shall report cases of violation of any of the provisions of said article to the attorney general, with a statement of the facts and circumstances, and when any such case is reported to him by the State registrar the attorney general shall forthwith initiate and promptly prosecute necessary proceedings against the parties responsible for the alleged violations of law.

Animals, Birds, and Fish—Disposal of Dead Bodies. (Chap. 229, Act Mar. 15, 1915.)

That chapter 100 of the revised code of the State of Delaware be, and the same is hereby, amended by repealing 3593, section 158 of said chapter, and inserting in lieu thereof the following section, to be styled 3593, section 158:

3593. Sec. 158. It shall be unlawful for the owner of any dead bird or animal or fish within this State which has died or been killed (excepting such birds, animals, or fish as may have been killed or taken in the regular course of trade, and also excepting such birds, animals, or fish as may have been sold and disposed of for manufacturing or other lawful purposes) to leave the same unburied for more than 24 hours after its death; and it shall be unlawful for any person to drag out and leave unburied the body of any bird or animal which has died or been killed.

Any person who violates any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined a sum not less than $20 nor more than $50 for each offense.

Laundries and Washhouses—Regulation of—Control by Local Boards of Health. (Chap. 59, Act Apr. 12, 1915.)

That chapter 25 of the revised statutes of the State of Delaware be, and the same is hereby, amended by the insertion therein of the following sections: 746A, section 11A; 746B, section 11B; 746C, section 11C; 746D, section 11D; 746E, section 11E.

746A. Sec. 11A. That the boards of health of the respective towns and cities of the State of Delaware (where such towns and cities have such boards of health) shall supervise all public laundries and public washhouses within such towns and cities, and shall not permit the employment by any public laundry or public washhouse of any person suffering with an infectious or contagious disease; nor allow any person to sleep in such public laundry or public washhouse, or in any room adjoining and opening into such public laundry or public washhouse, and every room in such laundry or
